Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

Father Martin is making good progress during his stay at St Raphael's in Danehill. Bishop Richard called to see him on Sunday last week and we have called in during the week. The doctors are pleased with his progress and I have noticed a marked improvement in him as the week has gone on.

He said that he was amazed by the number of people who have visited the parish Facebook page to read his message from last Sunday, and even more amazed and grateful for the many, many messages and cards which he has received during the week. I am hopeful that in a few weeks he will be well enough to leave Danehill and perhaps take a holiday to completely recover. He sends his thanks and best wishes to you all; and holds us in his prayers.

A Christian prayer in union with creation

*By Pope Francis, who published this prayer in his Laudato Si' encyclical, and is meant for us Christians to ask for inspiration to take up the commitment to creation set before us by the Gospel of Jesus.*

Father, we praise you with all your creatures.
They came forth from your all-powerful hand;
they are yours, filled with your presence and your tender love.

Praise be to you!
Son of God, Jesus,
through you all things were made.
You were formed in the womb of Mary our Mother,
you became part of this earth,
and you gazed upon this world with human eyes.
Today you are alive in every creature
in your risen glory.

Praise be to you!
Holy Spirit, by your light
you guide this world towards the Father's love
and accompany creation as it groans in travail.
You also dwell in our hearts
and you inspire us to do what is good.

Praise be to you!
Triune Lord, wondrous community of infinite love,
teach us to contemplate you
in the beauty of the universe,
for all things speak of you.
Awaken our praise and thankfulness
for every being that you have made.
Give us the grace to feel profoundly joined to everything that is.
☩ God of love, show us our place in this world
as channels of your love
for all the creatures of this earth,
for not one of them is forgotten in your sight.

Enlighten those who possess power and money
that they may avoid the sin of indifference,
that they may love the common good, advance the weak,
and care for this world in which we live.
The poor and the earth are crying out.

O Lord, seize us with your power and light,
help us to protect all life,
to prepare for a better future,
for the coming of your Kingdom
of justice, peace, love and beauty.

Praise be to you!
Amen.

PRAYER FOR REFUGEES

Almighty and merciful God,
whose Son became a refugee
and had no place to call his own;
look with mercy on those who today are fleeing from danger, homeless and hungry.

Bless those who work to bring them relief;
inspire generosity and compassion in all our hearts;
and guide the nations of the world towards that day when all will rejoice in your Kingdom
of justice and of peace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

"PROCLAIM" PRAYER

Loving Father,
You so loved the world that you sent us your only Son,
that we might believe in him and have eternal life.
May we encounter Jesus Christ anew this day and live the Good News with joy.
Through the power of your Holy Spirit, help us to "go out to the whole world and proclaim" our faith with confidence.
Give us the courage to witness to the Joy of the Gospel by our words and actions.
Help our Parish to become more welcoming and missionary,
so that you may be known and loved by all people.
We make this prayer through Our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.
Amen.

Our Lady, Star of the New Evangelization, Pray for us.
Blessed John Henry Newman, Pray for us.
St. Thérèse of Lisieux, Pray for us.

*"O Brother, when you see a poor person, you have been shown in a mirror the Lord and his poor mother."
"In the sick you see the infirmities which [the Lord] took upon himself for our sake."*

St. Francis of Assisi

"O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes."

Pope Francis
(from Laudato Si')
